American Army Headquarters in France, Sept. 24.—One section of the American army is now at the front. Although the men are not upon the firing line, they are so close to it that two soldiers have already been wounded by German shells.

Copenhagen, Sept. 24.—The mysterious absence of Premier Kerensky from Petrograd is regarded with significance in view of the imminence of a new political crisis, said a dispatch from the Russian capital dated Sunday and received here today. The Bolshevik group is becoming bolder and bolder in its fight for power, the latest move being accusations against Kerensky by which the radicals evidently hope to wreck the government.

(International News Service.)

Petrograd, Sept. 24.—All the ambassadors of the allied countries have paid official visits to the foreign office, where they held formal conferences with Vice Premier and Foreign Minister Tertsenko. It was stated today. The foreign minister told the envoys that the provisional government is determined to follow its announced policy without being intimidated by the two groups of extremists.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Replying to the German reply to the Pope's proposal, Senator Lewis of Illinois, democratic whip of the senate, declared this afternoon that no peace is possible until America has achieved all her war aims.

INDIGNANT BECAUSE MEM-BERS ASSAILED.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Charging that the statements made by Representative Heflin in regard to the Bernstorff slush fund were "false and malicious," and that Representative Heflin had "done irreparable injury to the house," Representative Norton of North Dakota, this afternoon announced his intention of presenting a resolution to compel Representative Heflin of Alabama, and Representative Howard of Georgia, to prove the truth of their statements.

When he finished, Mr. Heflin indicated that he would not deny any part of the statement attributed to him. Mr. Heflin had charged that eleven members of the house had been corrupted by German gold.

GERMAN MOVE WAS LARGELY POLITICAL.

(International News Service.)

London, Sept. 24.—A sudden burst of German activity on the eastern front, which resulted in the capture of Jacobstadt from the Russians, was held by British military critics today to be a political rather than a military move.

It was pointed out that the Germans wanted to offset the depressing effect of the British victory on the West Flanders front. Stiff local fighting and violent artillery actions have followed the British thrust north-east and southeast of Ypres.

Air activity is again on the increase. The war office reported that in sky battles Sunday four German machines were shot down and two were driven out of control, while two British machines were lost.

The Kaiser has gone to the Roumanian front, according to advices. It is not known what his presence there presages. On the French front the big guns are again active.

(International News Service.)

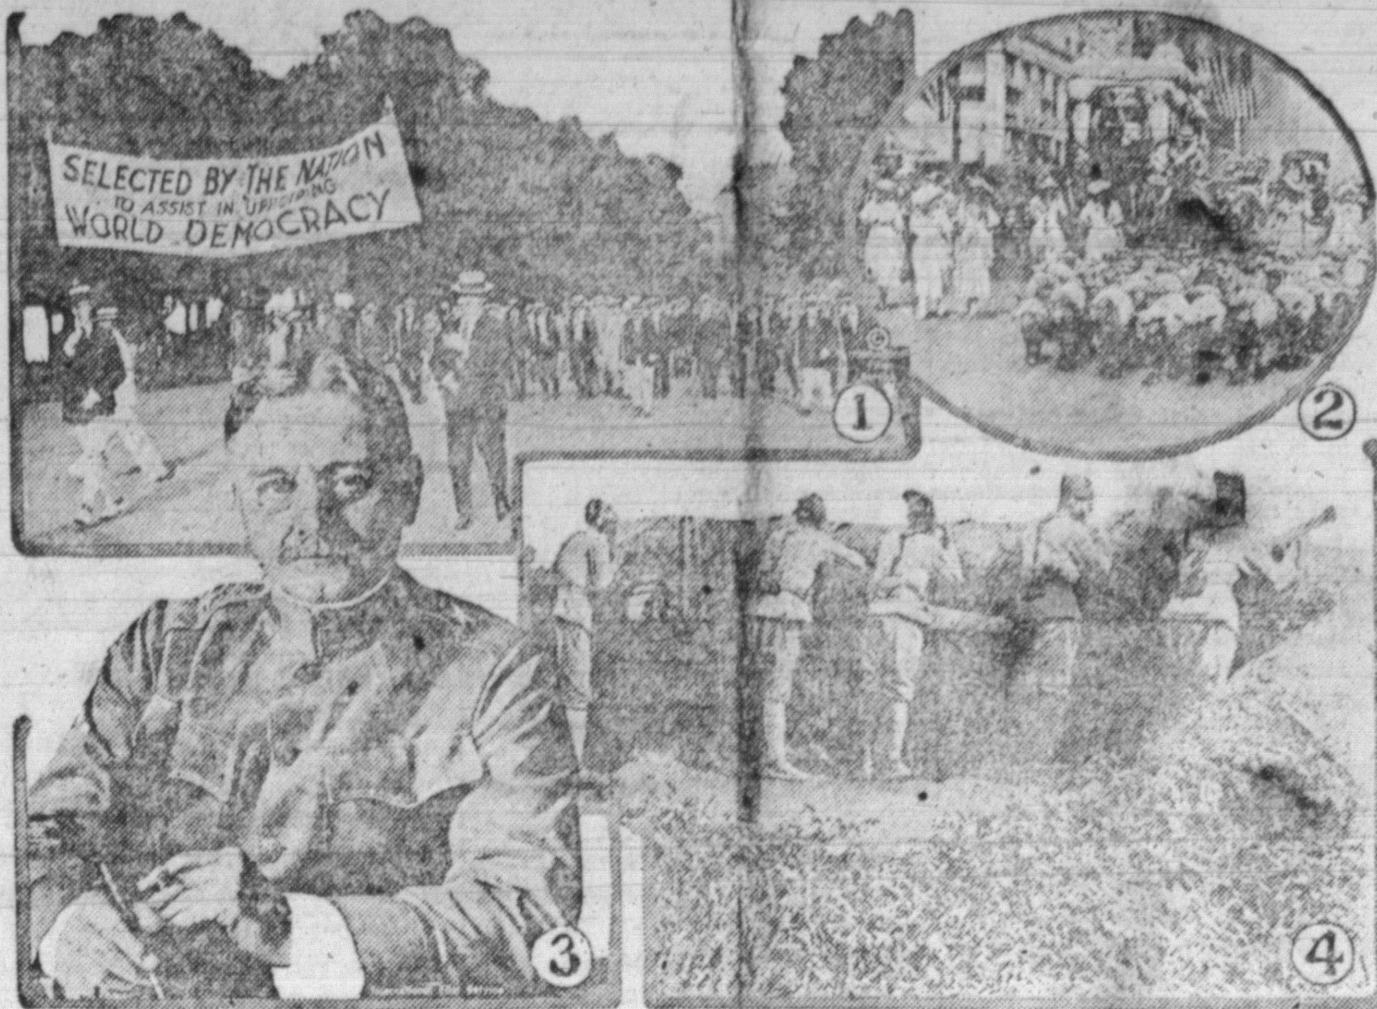

HEAVY ARTILLERY DUELS.

London, Sept. 24.—Heavy artillery duels continued throughout the night on the Arras front and northeast of Ypres, the war office reported today. The big guns were particularly active along the Scarpe river and south of Lens. Near Le Basseville, German raiders penetrated a British trench capturing some prisoners.

Failure of Texas Board To Report Result Examination Bars Local Boy From Army

Arthur Widner, prominent young man of Albany, who registered here on June 5th is having a hard time getting into the army. Soon after registration day, Mr. Widner left for Houston, Texas, and obtained permission from the local board to be examined in the Texas city. Some days ago Mr. Widner arrived here and reported to the local board as being ready for duty at once. He passed the physical examination in Houston, claiming no exemption, but as yet Secretary Draper of the local board has received no report from the Houston office, and as a result Mr. Widner's case is hanging fire until word is received from the Houston board. Mr. Widner's brother, Gus, was in the navy for eight years and became famous as an expert rifleman, the highest grade of sharpshooter. He also won a medal for distinguished service during the late uprising at Port Au Prince, Haiti.

ALBANY BOOSTERS OFF TOMORROW FOR VALHERMOSA

The Albany Boosters will again swing around the circuit tomorrow, leaving the Albany Board of Commerce at 8 a. m. The day's itinerary has been considerably shortened, thus making the jaunt easy for those who can spare only a limited amount of time away from their various businesses.

Tomorrow itinerary follows: 8:30 a. m., Crowton (Crow's Store); 10 a. m., Antioch (Turner's Mills); 11 a. m., Woodland Mill; 12 m., Valhermosa; 2 p. m., Wilson's Gin; 3 p. m., Cross Roads, south of Bluff City; 4 p. m., Ransom's Store.

An effort is being made to have as many cars on this trip as possible, as the territory that will be covered offers an unusually fertile field for Albany's commercial activities. Moreover, the greater volume of the trade from this section has hitherto been going to other points, due in part to the fact that practically no effort had previously been made to turn the tide of this business toward Albany.

It is anticipated that tomorrow's trip will be one of the biggest and most productive of results that has yet been undertaken by the Boosters.

A rare opportunity to obtain results will present itself to the invaders at Valhermosa, inasmuch as it is "Circus Day" there and a monster crowd will be on hand.

NEXT PEACE MOVE EXPECTED TO COME THEN. RESULTS
HIDDEN.

(International News Service.)

The Hague, Sept. 24.—The real results of the central powers' replies to the peace note of Pope Benedict seem hidden so far under a camouflage of conflicting press comments. That was the opinion expressed in diplomatic circles today, based upon extracts from editorials in English, French, German, Austrian and Dutch newspapers. German newspapers assert that the German reply really represents the will of the German people. The next peace move in Germany will probably come this week when the main committee of the Reichstag meets on Thursday.

PASTOR SPEAKS A GOOD WORD FOR THE WAR LIBRARY

REV. MUNDAY HEARD IN A
THOUGHTFUL DISCOURSE AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

Rev. T. G. Munday, recently installed rector of St. John's Episcopal church, was heard Sunday morning by an appreciative congregation from the text, "Now, therefore, be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither; for God did send me before you to preserve life." Gen. 45:5. Joseph's words to his sinful brethren who had sold their talented brother through jealousy.

The speaker's theme was "Evil Made Into Good Under God's Miraculous Power."

Before launching forth into his sermon the speaker drew a distinction between sin and evil.

"Sin is direct transgression of God's law. Evil is a growing desire to damage and do harm. Profanity is a sin and any who swear are sinful persons, but such are not necessarily evil persons," said the speaker.

"An evil person strikes a child or one helpless in old age."

A history of Joseph's sale and bondage in Egypt were given as a basis for showing how evil is often turned into good. "This is not to be taken as putting a premium on evil," warned the speaker. It was pointed out that while Adam originated sin, "sin must forever stand without the portals of our souls unless by an act of our wills we let sin in."

Repentance, according to the speaker, is more than just an act. "It is a wishing and a longing for all sin to leave us. Sin caused the Prodigal Son to turn to a forgiving father. It was when St. Paul saw the enormity of his sin that he repented. It sometimes takes the shadows to bring out the sunshine. God raises the fallen much higher than the heights from which they fell."

In concluding, the speaker said, with the great war in mind: "Oh, my friends, May God in some way turn into goodness the terrible catastrophe which has befallen the world and also turn into good the sins which have overtaken us."

Plea For Soldier Library.

In his morning announcements Rev. Munday spoke in behalf of the million-dollar library fund asked by the Washington government for the use of our soldiers. "There are 32 cantonment camps located throughout the country," said the speaker, "and for these the United States government is asking that the people subscribe a million dollars. If it is asked, why does not the government supply this want, the reply is that it now has its hands full getting the men and the money for our expedition across the water."

SOLDIER BOYS AT CAMP PIKE ARE IN QUARANTINE

Secretary Thompson Returns Home and Describes Trip on Special

Ovation All Along The Way

Morgan's Men Slept Hour and Half After Arrival, Then Roused Up For Breakfast

Morgan county's second contingent of selected men reached Camp Pike, Ark., in the best of spirits and without untoward incident. This is the news brought here by H. R. Thompson, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who accompanied the boys on their long trip, returning here Sunday evening. Mr. Thompson spent about ten hours at the camp.

His story of the trip follows: "Ten minutes after pulling out from the Decatur station the boys had fully thrown off the depression resulting from their separation with loved ones, and from that time on were up and doing. At every station we passed, great crowds had gathered to cheer the men who were going out to fight for their country, and the cheers brought a roaring response, not only from the Morgan county men, but from the other contingents on the train—those from Jackson, Madison, Lawrence, Lauderdale and other counties. The train carried 15 coaches when it was finally made up.

"At Tusculum, two fashionably dressed and pretty young women, who had boarded the special to say goodbye, lingered a moment too long, and were caught in the crush and carried on down the road. For forty miles they were the center of an animated group of soldier boys, and then a purse was made up and they were sent back home.

"At Corinth, Miss., a box lunch was served, and at Forest City, Ark., just across the Mississippi river bottom, a box supper was furnished. Big five-gallon cans of coffee were brought aboard, and the men were allowed to drink all the coffee they wanted. This helped them to keep awake during the night. Forest City gave the special an ovation.

Reach Camp Pike. "The special pulled into Camp Pike at 4 o'clock on Saturday morning, nearly six hours late. The boys were lined up, drew blankets, and were in bed by 5 o'clock. The men sleep in two-story buildings, each of which has accommodations for 250. The buildings are equipped with hot and cold water, shower baths and excellent bathing and toilet facilities. The men sleep on iron beds, with excellent springs and not on cots.

"Saturday morning at 6:30 o'clock the drowsy boys were roused out of bed, given seven minutes to wash up, and then lined up and drew their mess kits. They single filed through the kitchen where each man was served with rice and sugar, two slices of select bacon, Irish potatoes, bread and coffee. After breakfast they washed up the mess kits, made up the bunks and were then given brisk exercises.

All In Quarantine. "The boys were next sent to the receiving station, where they were classified. A special call was made for stenographers, clerks and motorcycle riders. Several responded. From the receiving station the boys were sent back to quarters to remain ten days in quarantine. They were all inoculated for typhoid and vaccinated. During the quarantine period they will drill in special enclosures, but will not be allowed to come in contact with any other of the troops at the camp.

"All of the boys were instructed to write home at once, giving their address. For the present they can be addressed 'Morgan County Contingent, Barracks 150, Camp Pike, Ark.' They may all have new addresses within a very short while, however, as the

FOUR NEW STORES OPENED BY POINTER

WILL SELL FOR CASH AND MAKE NO DELIVERIES. CALLED "UTOTEM."

Poster H. Pointer, the well-known and progressive Decatur grocer, has introduced quite an innovation in the way of novelty stores for the Twin Cities. This morning Mr. Pointer opened at 410 Bank street the first of his chain of new plan grocery stores which will be conducted under the name of "Utotem."

Under the plan as outlined by Mr. Pointer, there will be four stores in the chain, two in Decatur, one in Albany and one in South Albany. In these stores there will be no clerks, no delivery and every article of merchandise sold will be strictly on a cash basis. Prospective purchasers are supposed to bring a market basket with them or the store will furnish one to the customer. On entering the store the customer is to walk down the aisle to the right, selecting the articles desired, which are displayed already wrapped in attractive packages, with the price marked plainly thereon, then returning up the left aisle to the cashier's window, paying for the purchase and going on his way rejoicing.

This novel idea is planned along the modus operandi of the cafeteria restaurants, now enjoying great popularity in the larger cities throughout the land, and all of which tend to materially reduce the high cost of living.

For the Twin Cities this is an unusually novel plan of conducting a business, and a valuable one, and shows the progressiveness and initiative that is characteristic of Decatur's up-to-the-minute grocer.

New German Loan Is Going Begging

(International News Service.) Amsterdam, Sept. 24.—Germany is meeting with serious obstacles in the flotation of her new (seventh) war loan. Advices from the frontiers stated that not only are special inducements being offered to the German people, but strong efforts are being made to sell the bonds in Switzerland, Denmark and Sweden.

U. S. Torpedo Boat Suffers Accident

(International News Service.) Washington, Sept. 24.—An American torpedo boat that sent out distress signals somewhere off the United States coast last night has been found by a destroyer and towed into port, the navy department announced today.

The accident was an "internal one," the navy officials said.

TAKING CARE OF THE SWEET POTATO CROP.

Carl Vrooman, assistant secretary of agriculture, in a recent statement called attention to the fact that the nation is growing a bumper crop of 88,000,000 bushels of sweet potatoes, and that there were storage facilities for but 15 per cent of the crop. This means that the remaining 85 per cent must be consumed immediately, either by man or beast, or it will go to waste, and that at a time when the whole world needs to be fed.

Mr. Vrooman suggests the erection of storage warehouses, especially in the South, as 90 per cent of sweet potato production is credited to territory lying south of Maryland. This suggestion is one that deserves the attention of hundreds of residents of this immediate vicinity, for it is a patent fact that never before were so many sweet potatoes grown in this section. What are we going to do with them? This is a question that but few potato growers have yet attempted to answer. Perhaps they intend to throw the surplus away, after their own wants have been supplied. They can feed but a small portion to hogs, for the pensive porker is not very much in evidence hereabouts and the corn yield is also phenomenal.

Potatoes can very easily be kept until the crop of the following year is ready to harvest if properly handled and properly stored. They are fragile and delicate, easily bruised in handling and easily chilled. Once properly stored in the right kind of a storage room they keep well until they are used. Think of the immense amount of food that could thus be conserved! Think of the value in dollars and cents if the potato crop was saved for use during a twelve months period! A community store house would solve the problem. Isn't it worth thinking over?

TY COBB BESTED AS A PEN WRITER.

Certain newspapers have "at great expense and personal inconvenience" secured the right to use a copyrighted, syndicated story captioned "The Diary of a U-Boat Commander," and purporting to have been written by the commander of the U-13, who, according to some legends, if not the Berlin official report, took his own life. This remarkable piece of fiction shows the submersible skipper in the light of a man of weird and tragic romance, one who combined a most extraordinary experience with a most pronounced literary gift. Its preservation to posterity in syndicated form is one of the great miracles of the deep, one for which all mankind should daily offer thanks. There is nothing in Twentieth century fiction that can compare with this classic except those world series thrillers written and signed by Ty Cobb himself. Let Shakespeare, Thackeray, Poe, Dickens and the other literary hacks of the past now retire to the halls of oblivion. They lived too soon.

McElroy Reports Only To Find Quota is Filled

John S. McElroy, 145 Holdenia street, Atlanta, another drafted man who failed to answer roll call on Sept. 21, reported to the local exemption board Saturday night. As was thought at the time of Mr. McElroy's non-appearance, delay in forwarding his mail to him caused his tardiness in reporting.

Rather a peculiar situation exists in Mr. McElroy's case. Morgan's quota of forty per cent, comprising 131 men, was two short of the required number when the soldiers entrained for Camp Pike on last Friday morning. Saturday the remaining two were secured, and as the condition now exists, Mr. McElroy can't be sent on to the camp until another quota is dispatched.

men will be classified and given assignments for which they are best fitted. While the Morgan county men will not be in the same company, the present plan is for the majority of them to be assigned to the same regiment.

Camp Pike Big Place.
"There is no way to get an adequate idea of the size of Camp Pike except to visit it. The camp will accommodate 65,000 troops, or a number equal to the population of Little Rock, eight miles away. It is divided into streets just like a modern city, and already 1,200 buildings have gone up and 400 more are contemplated. Stationed there at the present time are about 13,000 drafted men and about 12,000 national guardsmen. The camp has a postoffice employing 22 clerks. It has seven Y. M. C. A. buildings and a Y. M. C. A. auditorium that will seat 5,000 persons. The camp is beautifully located on a plateau bordered by hills that are in reality small mountains. It is well drained and has sandy soil—an ideal place."

Lieut. Virgil Bell Visits Native Heath

FORMER NEWSPAPER REPORTER WORKS UP FROM THE RANKS.

Lieutenant Virgil Bell, well-known young Decatur boy, and formerly an efficient reporter on the staff of the Albany-Decatur Daily, will arrive this afternoon to spend a few days with friends before reporting to his regiment for active service.

Lieutenant Bell's well-earned advancement in Uncle Sam's service is worthy of the very highest commendation, being an illustration of the fact that a private can rise from the ranks to an officer's shoulder straps. Mr. Bell left the employ of the Daily something over two years ago, to accept a place on the Gadsden Journal. Tiring of the newspaper game, he enlisted in the army at Fort Worth, Texas, as a private. Being a young man of unusual talent and fine education, Mr. Bell applied himself assiduously to the arduous tasks of working up from the ranks, and his unceasing plugging and untiring efforts finally brought him to the threshold of the goal he had striven so courageously to attain. Taking the examination for a lieutenant's commission, Virgil passed with flying colors and was ordered to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, for intensive training. While at Fort Leavenworth, the former reporter displayed such tact for military affairs that he was soon commissioned as a first lieutenant.

While working as a reporter on the Daily, Mr. Bell showed an unusual talent for the intricate workings of the "great fourth estate," becoming well-known throughout the state as a paragrapher. Although newspaperdom is a loser by Mr. Bell's decision to throw his lot with the military, his scores of friends predict for him just as brilliant a career as a soldier as he could have had should he have remained in the newspaper business.

AMUSEMENTS

DON NICHOLS' MUSICAL COMEDY COMPANY TO PRESENT "BY THE SAD SEA WAVES" AT THE MASONIC THEATRE TONIGHT.

Tonight's bill at the Masonic theatre, presented by Don Nichols' Neices and Nephews of Uncle Sam" will be something different from the "tabloid show. "By the Sad Sea Waves" is a clean, wholesome show, full of good, legitimate comedy put over by real performers. The show's motto is cleanliness from start to finish. There will be "miles of smiles without a blush." Those who remember the Greenwood Amusement Co., which played here for two weeks last season, will remember both Mr. Nichols and his wife, Miss Thelma Goodwin. Shows of even better calibre will be presented by Mr. Nichols during this visit.

GREAT CAST IN "BELIEVE ME XANTIPPE" AT MASONIC THEATRE THURSDAY NIGHT.

The company supporting Richard Buhler in the Harvard prize play, "Believe Me Xantippe," at the Masonic theatre Thursday night, Sept. 27, is composed of artists of established reputations who have appeared principally for extended engagements with prominent stars in New York. Max Von Mitzel created and played the leading parts with Blanche Walsh in the original New York productions of "The Woman in the Case," "Resurrection," and other Wagenhals & Kemper productions. Chas. Canfield for a number of seasons appeared in important parts with the Frohman productions, with Margaret Illington, Maude Adams and other Frohman stars, and for the past two seasons with Wm. Hodge. John Prescott was for several seasons with Henry B. Harris attraction, playing prominent parts with Robert Edison, Elsie Ferguson and the other Harris stars. Howard Hall has been seen exclusively on Broadway for the past three seasons in the support of John Barrymore and in important parts in the Shubert productions. M. Teilo Webb plays the identical part with Richard Buhler on tour that he played during the New York run of 150 performances at the Thirty-Ninth Street theatre, New York, in "Believe Me Xantippe." Louise Orendorff was for several seasons with Julia Arthur and

As the new law on compulsory education will go into effect very soon, and as it is absolutely necessary for us to understand our duties as trustees and citizens, concerning this law, I am asking every trustee in the county to meet me at the following places, at the time designated, that we may study this law together.

Those living in Districts 2 and 4, Foote's and Davis districts, will meet me at Hartselle on Monday, Oct. 1, at the high school building.

Those living in District 3, Princes' district, will meet me at Florette on Tuesday, Oct. 2.

Those living in District 1, Robinson's district, will meet me at the court house on Wednesday, Oct. 3, at 10:30 a. m.

Gentlemen, I am calling on you with all the earnestness of my being to meet me at these places. This is the beginning of a new era, educationally, in our county. As officers, as citizens, as neighbors, let us all pull together to make this law a great success. Please come to these meetings. Let the citizens also come if they will.

other celebrated dramatic stars. Margaret Knight, a very young, beautiful and talented southern girl, who plays the part of "Dolly" in "Believe Me Xantippe," has been playing good parts with Broadway productions for the past four seasons. Rose Mayo, a member of the well known Mayo family, who were among the first rank of America's representative actors, several years ago, also plays a good part in this production. The play is mounted with the original New York scenic production.

For her friend and college chum, Mrs. Jas. A. Duncan, Miss Gladys Goubey entertained at tea Saturday afternoon. A charming informal party marked the occasion. Mrs. Duncan was very handsome in gray chapeau with harmonizing accessories. Delightful reminiscences were exchanged. During the afternoon tea and wafers were served. A bowl of varicolored nasturtiums centered the living room and gave just a dash of autumn coloring. Those invited were Mesdames Seneca Durr, A. J. Harris, B. E. Prentiss, J. J. Ramage, R. Green, R. E. Pearson, H. M. Stevenson, W. E. Morris, Charles Leitch, D. D. McGehee, Atlee Hoff, Misses Mattie Jones and Mary Banks.

MEETING OF COMMITTEES FOR LIBRARIES HELD TONIGHT.

The key committee will meet the general committee of the soldier boys camp library fund, at 7:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. tonight. Every member of both committees is urged to be there on time. It is a matter of utmost importance that the committees put their heart and their best energies into this work. It means much real joy and contentment to our beloved soldier boys that we succeed abundantly in this great work.

I am sure that we will succeed in raising the $200 fixed by the war department as the goal for Albany. I am not only glad to work in such a cause, but in such company, and you may rest assured that anything I can do will be done.

A telegram from Nashville in regard to today's campaign for this fund, says: "Tennessee is hitting on all twelve cylinders and looks for this machine to go over the top under full power."

Let all the people of Albany contribute to this grand work today.

Rudyard Kipling has truly said: "It ain't the guns nor armament, nor fund that they can pay."

But the close co-operation that makes 'em win the day.

It ain't the individual nor army as a whole.

But the everlastin' teamwork of every bloomin' soul."

I am confident that Albany will do her full duty.

SAMUEL BLACKWELL, Chairman.

CHANGE NOTION ABOUT CALOMEL; NOW DELIGHTFUL

Old-Style Calomel Gives Place to the New De-Nauseated Variety Known as "Calotabs."

With all of the liver-cleansing and system-purifying qualities of the old-style calomel, but robbed of its sickening, griping and dangerous effects, Calotabs is destined to become the most popular as well as the most useful of all home remedies. For biliousness, constipation and indigestion it is absolutely indispensable, for nothing, but calomel will straighten out a disordered liver.

If you have tried Calotabs, the de-nauseated calomel tablets, you know how easy it is to take. One tablet at bedtime with a swallow of water—no taste, no griping, no nausea. Next morning your liver is active, your system purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite. Eat what you please—no danger.

Genuine Calotabs are never sold in bulk. Ask for the original, sealed package containing twenty doses; price thirty-five cents. If you are not thoroughly delighted your druggist is authorized to refund your money. (Adv.)

FOR THE PRESENT.

(International News Service.)
Buenos Aires, Sept. 24.—A virtual state of martial law was in effect here today as a result of the national railway strike. Forces of heavily armed soldiers and police are maintaining order. All the lines in Argentina are tied up.

(International News Service.)
Buenos Aires, Sept. 24.—A rupture with Germany was regarded as less imminent today as the result of a note from Berlin repudiating the unilateral actions of Count Von Luxburg, the German envoy to Argentina. Another session of the chamber of deputies was called for this afternoon for further consideration of the Argentine-German situation, but it was believed unlikely that the resolution of the senate calling for an immediate break with Germany would be upheld.

amount, remember the high cost of material and that the library buildings are to be 40x140 feet in size; besides it will require many trained men and women to look after this work. If it is asked why cannot the Y. M. C. A. and the Knights of Columbus look after this, it must be kept in mind that these organizations already have all they can do in their own special lines. I understand that Albany's part in this fund is $200, and I am sure this amount will be raised without difficulty. You could not give to a more worthy cause than to this library fund."

Cupid Comes Back; Three Couples Are Licensed To Wed

Although Cupid's batting average at the Morgan county court house during the month of September has resembled that of Garry Cravath in the world series of 1915, the famous little archer has shown his ability to come back. Three marriage licenses were issued at the probate judge's office on Saturday, in two of which cases the consent of the parents had to be secured, as the contracting parties were under the age limit.

The following licenses were issued Saturday:
Marion Holt to Miss Mattie Lou Higdon, both of Albany.
Lonnie T. Moore to Miss Maude Hutson, both of Falkville.
Early M. Long, of Albany, to Miss Virgie Thrasher, of Hartselle.
In the case of Marion Holt, his father, Robert Holt, procured the license, as his son was only 19 years of age, the bride being 26. It was also necessary to obtain the consent of Miss Maude Hutson's mother before a license could be issued to Mr. Moore, as much as the girl was only 17.

Troops Eat Ground Glass; None Ill

Kenneth Harris Sets a Record As a Bicyclist

Kenneth Harris, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Harris, of Albany, has returned from Albion, Ill., and brings back with him what may prove to be an amateur bicycling record for youths. Kenneth rode the 500 miles from Albany to Albion in five days, or an average of nearly 100 miles a day. He had no punctures. During his trip, the youth had a number of adventures, at one time losing his pocketbook and completing the last 60-mile lap of his journey on 50 cents, 15 of which he spent for ferry passage.

Decatur Police Win In Big Offensive

Law-Breaking Element Routed, Small Docket Shows.

The efficiency of the Decatur police force in clamping the lid on tight has been well demonstrated during the month of September. So vigilant has become Chief Earnest Carriger and his able staff of co-workers that the law-breaking element of the city has evidently folded its tents and like the Arab of the desert, crept silently away.

Several weeks ago Chief Carriger launched an offensive against the crap-shooters, speeders and other law breakers that has been productive of the most gratifying results. As a consequence of this "drive" the Decatur police dockets for September are almost as blank as the expression on the face of the well-known spynx.

Next Wednesday Jewish New Year

Stores Will Be Closed and No Work of Any Kind Done.

Tuesday at sundown the Jewish holiday of Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, will begin and will continue till Wednesday at sundown. This is practically the most important day in the year in the Jewish calendar. It marks the conclusion and the climax of the penitential season, which began on New Year. All business places operated by Jews will be closed; no work of any kind is to be performed on this day. The synagogues will be thronged with the worshippers, repentance, improvement, forgiveness and pardon of sins are the lessons the Day of Atonement inculcates, and it is for the individual to endeavor to learn and to comply with the principles.

Lieut. Adams Here For Short Visit

Lieut. John Cooper Adams, United States field artillery, is home on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Adams, before reporting to his regiment at San Antonio, Texas. Lieutenant Adams has been stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kans., where he underwent intensive training for a period of three months, being formerly a student in the Army-Navy school at Washington, D. C. Lieut. Adams was recently commissioned as first lieutenant, his ready adaptability to his chosen profession earning him well-merited promotion at an unusually early date.

Miss Tinling To Lecture Here Soon

W. C. T. U. Elects Mrs. Virginia Graham as President, Ralse War Fund.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the W. C. T. U. Thursday it was announced that Mrs. F. M. Jackson, of Birmingham, had secured for the Twin Cities an engagement with Miss Christine Tinling of England, to lecture in one of the local churches the evening of October 8. Miss Tinling is a great favorite in Alabama among college and high school students—the students of Auburn having repeatedly asked for her return to them.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Virginia Graham. Secretary, Mrs. Lovin. Treasurer, Mrs. Jerre Clark. Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. W. Crow.

The numerous vice presidents and superintendents of departments are appointed by the president and will be announced later. The annual reports will be sent to state officer on Monday and Mrs. Clark will gladly receive any funds for this great work that any one may wish to give. The fund for the W. C. T. U. ambulance to be sent to France is one of the most popular funds just now. Gifts of ten cents or more are appreciated.
